

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

UP AGAINST THE BIG GUNS

Schoolboy: Gee!

THIS IS NO TIME TO BE TIMID

THE LABORS OF WAR AND PEACE

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

"NOW, DIG UP WHAT MY TARIFF LAW COST YOU!"

SPEAKING OF CHS

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County GALES FERRY

Winners in Country Club Tennis Tournament—Officers Elected—Methodist Church Chooses Trustees.

The Gales Ferry Country Club closed a very successful season with its annual tennis tournament on its grounds, in the village last week. This was conducted independently of the Roxbury School players, who have participated in these events. There were 24 contestants from the Gales Ferry Club alone, the results of the tournament being as follows:
Ladies' Singles—Silver Cup taken by Miss Mary Rudd Gibbs; second prize, set tennis balls, Miss Daisy Wolf.
Girls' Singles—Blue ribbon taken by Valerie Underwood; second red ribbon taken by Edna Mann.
Men's Singles—Silver cup taken by Frank Applin; second prize, set tennis balls, Oliver Wolf.
Boys' Singles—Blue ribbon taken by Romeyn Smith; second, red ribbon by Clinton Jones.
Mixed Doubles—Blue Ribbons, Miss Daisy Wolf and Mr. Carl Lawson; second, red ribbon by Miss Beesie Ames and Mr. Frank Applin.
A special tournament now being held on the West Court by the Roxbury School players, will be concluded this week. The officers and members of the club feel well paid for the season's efforts, having been able to add this year a new clay tournament court, making two clay courts in all; a substantial bathing dock, and to set aside a balance as a nucleus for a building fund with which to add other improvements as needed.

Officers Elected.
The Summer election of officers resulted as follows:—President, J. P. Batterlee; vice president, Miss Mary Rudd Gibbs; treasurer, Oliver Wolf; secretary, Miss Daisy Wolf; chairman executive committee, Robert J. Fitzmaurice.

Former Pastor Preaches.
Rev. D. Ward Adams of Uncasville, a former pastor of the Methodist church here for six years, preached at 1 o'clock in the church Sunday afternoon in the absence of Rev. Mr. Potter. Mr. Adams spoke from those words of St. Paul's—Oh! King Asa—pa I was not disobedient unto thee. At the offertory Miss Grace Chapman sang a solo, 'Fear Not, Ye Oh, Israel,' by Dudley Buck.

The Epworth League service at 7:30 o'clock in the evening was led by Mrs. John J. Lawless, the topic being, 'What shall my life work be?' D. R. Porey sang a baritone solo, 'I'll go Where You Want Me to Go, Dear Lord.'
Return to Putnam.
Judge Harry V. Mann and Mrs. Mann with their daughters, Misses Marjorie and Edna Mann closed their cottage on the bluff, and returned to their home in Putnam, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clouse, who have been occupying 'The Pines,' returned to New Haven, Monday. Mr. Clouse who is connected with the Roxbury school will return later.
Miss Annie Ames, her daughter, Miss Beesie Ames, and son Richard Ames, with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Frost, returned to their home on Saturday at Yonkers, N. Y.

Perkins Cottage Closed.
Mrs. John C. Perkins with her guests returned to her home in Norwich Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckwith of New London were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins at their home Wednesday.
Mrs. E. V. Manna who has been for several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Franklin H. Brown, returned to Providence last week.

Leave for Canada.
Mrs. Kemp Jones and two little daughters, Mary Josette and Louise, who have been at the home of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Delphine Fish, left for their home at Rainey River, Canada, last Thursday.
Mrs. Fred Richards of Laurel Hill, Norwich, was a caller at the cottage of her brother, J. P. Batterlee in the village Thursday afternoon.
Madam Adele M. Dennis of Columbia, S. C. has been guest of the Misses Mathewson for several weeks.
Mrs. George Hamilton of Norwich was the week-end guest at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Church on the bluff. Mr. Hamilton and the Misses Hamilton joining her for Sunday there.
Entertained College Friend.
John Raymond Perkins has been entertaining Thomas Ellis Rivers of Meridian, Miss., and Alpheus Wade Stevenson Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa., former classmates of his at Mt. Hermon. The young men left the village Friday, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Rivers to enter their second year, in the University of Wisconsin and Mr. Stevenson at the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Perkins and their daughter Miss Jennie G. Perkins with their son John R. Perkins and his guest enjoyed a sail and fishing in the Sound Monday, in the auxiliary boat Ruth.
Methodist Trustees Elected.
The annual meeting for the election of trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church was held in the vestry Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock and resulted in the following choice: Courtland E. Colver reelected president; board of trustees, Dudley C. Perkins, reelected secretary and Mr. Clouse, Charles H. Chapman, C. E. Colver, F. Irving Hurlbutt elected for three years, Rufus W. Hurlbutt for one year. Miss Ruth Bogue of Norwich was a recent guest of Mrs. Emma Bennett of the village.

ROAD SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. John Culver to Move to Detroit—County Institute Sept. 23.
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson of Pendleton Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shay of Groton were at Mrs. Maria A. Stanton's Sunday.
Arthur Buddington, who has been in New Foundland for several months was at his uncle's, A. G. and Fernando Wheeler's recently before his return to Princeton College.
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Palmer have returned from a trip to Massachusetts. Mrs. Bert Barbour has been spending the week with her cousin Mrs. Ernest Main, at Old Mystic.
Opening of the Schools.
The schools have begun with Miss Hewitt of Hinkley Hill at Taugwonk Hill Hall of Avondale, at the Road, and Helen Williams of Quonansaug Hill at the Wheeler school.
Harry M. Crandall is at his sister's, Mrs. Henry Mattison's a while and working on the new road to Mason's Island.
A large number from here attended the North Stonington fair on Wednesday and some exhibits were shown. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culver left for Detroit some days ago where Mr. Culver has been in the auto works for a number of years. This week Mr. and Mrs. John Culver leave for the same place to make their residence.
Mrs. A. G. Wheeler and Miss Mary S. Wheeler were in New London Saturday.
The members of Stonington Grange were all invited to the Grange picnic at Atlantic Beach given by the Avondale Grange Friday.

Miss Martha Williams left for Boston on Tuesday where she enters the Conservatory for musical instruction. Her mother accompanied her and returned Thursday.
Miss Mary S. Wheeler left Friday for Wellesley College.
The Anne Warner Bailey Chapter D. A. R. Chapter D. A. R. celebrated its 21st birthday on Monday at Boxwood Lyme.
County Institute.
The New London County Sunday School Association will hold an institute in the Second Congregational church at Stonington on Wednesday Sept. 23rd afternoon and evening.
Abby Williams is visiting friends in New York having returned with F. L. Williams and family in their automobile last week.
Miss Amy Hazard has returned to her school work in New Jersey.
Amos Hewitt is enumerating the school children at Mystic East Side, and Mr. W. H. Harvey has been the guest of parents at Norwich Town recently.

LIBERTY HILL

Young Men Get Busy and Build Horse Sheds at the Church.
Since the Liberty Hill church was organized there has been an urgent necessity for sheds to accommodate the teams of the church people. A week ago Sunday it was announced from the pulpit that all those who were interested in building sheds for the church were asked to meet at the hall the following Tuesday. The meeting resulted in quick action and several public spirited young men went to the woods and hewed out the frame and rafters. The young men who did the work were Winthrop Davoli, Raymond Moritt, Earl, Robert and Raymond James. The men are busy filling sills this week but it is expected the sheds will be ready to occupy next Sunday.
The Ladies' Sewing Circle met at the hall Friday afternoon.
ASHWILLETT
Stolen Cow Found Tied in Woods, Nearly Starved.
Malcolm Thompson has moved his sawmill from Pendleton Hill to the Billings woodlot which he purchased and had cut over the summer.
The cow stolen from over the line in Rhode Island and traced to Cossadue hill two weeks or more ago, was found tied in the woods on the farm of T. B. Hewitt in a starved condition recently. The sheriff has a good description of the man and is looking him up.

Horatio S. Pierce attended the fair in Norwich the first of last week and visited with relatives out of town the last of the week.
Samuel D. Pierce of Rixtown was working in Pachaug the last of the week.
N. N. Main and son Grover were recent business callers in Norwich. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morgan were in Norwich on business last week.
Mrs. Julia A. Crumb was a recent caller in Glasgow and Voluntown.
Mr. and Mrs. William Weseman of Rixtown were recent callers in North Stonington.
Florence Russell was a business caller in the Mystic Tuesday.
C. F. Hayward was a business caller in Norwich during the week.
The farmers are busy cutting corn and digging potatoes which are rotting badly in places.
Everybody attended the Grange fair in North Stonington this week.

LISBON

Rev. and Mrs. T. E. Davies have been passing their vacation in and about Hartford.
Rev. G. C. Pollock of Norwich delivered a helpful discourse at Newent church Sunday morning from the text 'All things work together for good to those that love God.'
Nathaniel Mail has been a visitor in Williamantic this week.
Miss Isabel Hyde of Canterbury visited Sunday at Mrs. C. F. Johnson's.
Misses Sarah and Alice Hill have returned to New York after spending several weeks at Mrs. Frank Clements'.
R. R. Barber, Miss Martie Barber, J. E. Palmer, Mrs. Robert Swain, Mrs. W. S. Foote and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reade attended North Stonington fair Wednesday.
Harry Hull is filling his new silo.
Mrs. Ransom Reade entertained Sunday at her home.
Misses Sarah and Alice Hill have returned to New York after spending several weeks at Mrs. Frank Clements'.
R. R. Barber, Miss Martie Barber, J. E. Palmer, Mrs. Robert Swain, Mrs. W. S. Foote and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reade attended North Stonington fair Wednesday.
Harry Hull is filling his new silo.
Mrs. Ransom Reade entertained Sunday at her home.
Misses Sarah and Alice Hill have returned to New York after spending several weeks at Mrs. Frank Clements'.

GRISWOLD

Miss Mary Buck of Monson, Mass., was in town last week visiting her brother and old friends.
Mrs. F. S. Child was called to Hartford last week to attend the funeral of her aunt, who died suddenly.
Mr. and Mrs. George Geer of Baltic were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Norman Tuesday night and Wednesday.
Deacon E. A. Geer and family were in Montville Saturday calling on the Rev. C. L. French and family.
The Ladies' Aid society met last week Thursday with Miss Beesie Burton. There was a good attendance.
Samuel Gardner has added to the looks and comfort of his home by building a large veranda.
William Saunders visited his father, W. N. Saunders, at Hopewell last week.
An Overhead Charge.
Would you call a Zeppelin an overhead charge?—Wall Street Journal.

OLD MYSTIC

Teachers in the Local Schools—Summer Visitors Leave for Their Homes.
Rev. George H. Miner, D. D., of Mystic occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning.
Mr. Green of New London Y. M. C. A. occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning.
Rev. Herbert Bacon Hutchins of Old Mystic occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church, New Britain, Sunday, Sept. 13th.
Grammar School Teachers.
The Old Mystic grammar school opened Monday with the following teachers: Mrs. Florence Clapp, principal; Miss Jennie Eldred, teacher of 5th and 6th grades; Miss Florence Clark, teacher of 3d and 4th grades; Miss Eleanor Eckman, teacher of 1st and 2d grades.
The Mystic Woolen company of Old Mystic is making extensive improvements.
Rev. and Mrs. Arthur H. Withee have returned from a week's vacation spent with Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Fenner of Putnam.
Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Bacon Hutchins have returned from a week's vacation spent at Cape Porpoise and Lewiston, Me.
Mrs. Casper W. Dean arrived Tuesday for her annual visit to her cousin, Miss Mary H. Dean, at the Dean homestead.
Mrs. Augustus Babcock of New Jersey was a recent guest of her sisters Misses Dora Alden Welles and Minnie Welles, at the Welles homestead.
Miss Emma Avery Williams of Old Mystic is teaching the seventh grade at the Broadway School, Mystic.
Mrs. Frank E. Gates and daughter, Miss Mildred Gates, have returned to Providence after their annual visit to Miss Matilda Holloway and Mrs. Neil at the Holloway homestead.
Mrs. Harriet Ralston of New York state is the guest of the Misses Kennedy.
Miss Florence Clarke of Norwich, teacher in the third and fourth grades of the Old Mystic school, has a room at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Main.
Mrs. S. Cady has returned to Hartford after a visit to local relatives.
Mrs. Josephine Beebe of New London is the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Swain.
Teaching in North Stonington.
The school in the Warren Wheeler district, North Stonington, reopened Monday with Miss Helen Hayward Williams of Quonansaug Hill, Old Mystic, as teacher.
Miss Florence Walbridge has returned to her home at Stafford Springs after a visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy.
Miss Eleanor Eckman, teacher of the first and second grades of the Old Mystic school, is boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Brown.
Mrs. Ray Lewis of New London was a recent guest of the Misses Welles at the Welles homestead.
Mrs. Frederick Moore and Miss Mary Smith of New York were calling very recently on Miss Mary H. Dean.
The Burnett's Corners school has opened for the fall term.

Return from Westbrook.
Mr. and Mrs. Olin H. Avery have returned from a visit to Mrs. Avery's sister, Mrs. Bogue, at her summer cottage at Westbrook.
Nathan Williams and family have returned to their home at Gales Falls, Vt., after spending a month at their summer home on Galesp Hill.
Miss Mary Williams has returned to Providence after a visit to her aunt, Miss Lucy Gallup.

GOSHEN

C. E. Social—Prof. H. C. York to Be Instructor at Mt. Holyoke College.
A Christian Endeavor social was held at the home of Rev. John H. Knott Friday evening. The proceeds amounted to nearly $10.
At the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening the pastor, Rev. John H. Knott, gave the third in the series of interesting talks from the Pilgrims' Progress.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lyman of Columbia were callers here Tuesday.
The Ladies' Aid society met in the lecture room Tuesday afternoon.
Move to Mt. Holyoke.
The household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. York were moved to Holyoke, Mass. Thursday. Professor York is to assume the duties in Mt. Holyoke college as instructor on the Bible. Charles Browning of Norwich was a caller at his brother's, F. H. Browning's, Wednesday.

GLASGO

Small Blaze in Tenement House—Ladies' Aid Society to Meet.
Miss Rosa Eccleston returned home from Williamantic the last of the week. Felix Dutka has moved into the house formerly occupied by George Bell.
Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Eccleston of New London were visitors at W. G. Burdick's the first of the week.
Several from this place attended the Grange fair at North Stonington. We Tuesday.
There was a small blaze in one of the tenements Monday afternoon. The hose was turned on and soon extinguished the fire. No damage was done.
Miss Mitchell of Williamsville has been spending a few days in town. Albert Green is having an ell built on his house.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery were in Uncasville the first of the week. Mrs. Harris and Lemuel Fielding of Norwich were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler Sunday.
Mrs. Davis of Mystic was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Sunday.
Mrs. Maples and Mrs. Cooke of New London spent Sunday with Mrs. Baker.
Frank Burrows and Earl Oudregon of New London called on friends here Sunday.
Mrs. Avery and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Dolbear attended church at Palmertown Sunday evening.